1. In compliance with reinterrogation request #685(Specific) dated 22 August 1949, reference General Gottlob BREGER at the Prison in LANDSBERG/Bach (48058-1055E), the following additional information was received in regard to paragraph #2, g of the above indicated request:

2. BREGER was interrogated concerning his knowledge of activities and location of German scientists or engineers working in the USSR. At the time of the interview BREGER was not in a position to furnish information pertaining to this matter. However he assured the interviewing Agent that he would transmit any information he should receive. Attached to this report is a letter that was sent illegally from the USSR to Germany. (Inclosure #1, photostatic copy of the letter in German, inclosure #2, English translation thereof). The writer of this letter is an acquaintance of BREGER, Doctor of engineering HEROLD, formerly chief scientist in charge of the research-laboratory of the LINDNER WORKS in KREISHEIM (5122K-1200E). BREGER received the letter through Doctor HEROLD's wife, Mrs. HEROLD and her son are still residing in KREISHEIM.

3. The letter reached this office through courtesy of Colonel V. R. GRAHAM, Commanding Officer, LANDSBERG Prison, AFHQ G-2 U.S. ARMY. Colonel GRAHAM was extremely helpful and cooperative to facilitate this Agent's mission in LANDSBERG Prison.
